Referee Report for Provisional Membership with Residential Property Valuer

Information for the Nominated Referee

Your name has been submitted by the applicant listed on the following page as one who could support their application for admission as a Member of the Australian Property Institute.

Please return the attached completed report to either the applicant who has requested the referee report from you, or if you wish, direct to the National Membership Admissions Manager as soon as possible by email (including electronic signature), fax or post.

Your replies to these questions will be treated in the strictest confidence and any opinions expressed will not be disclosed to any unauthorised person. However, referees should be aware that in accordance with principles of procedural fairness and natural justice, the Institute is bound to disclose material adverse to the applicant in order to give the applicant the opportunity to respond. The referee's identity can be withheld at his/her request should the referee's relationship with the applicant justify the observance of confidentiality. The referee will be given the opportunity to withdraw the adverse material or to submit revised material if he/she so wishes.

Any other comments not covered by the questions should be addressed on a separate (signed) sheet and attached to the report.

Information for the Applicant

In nominating referees please be aware, that as a preferred position, the following is to apply:

- in most cases the referee should be aware of the work undertaken by the applicant.
- Referee Reports must be dated within the three months prior to the date of application.
- those applying for Residential Property Valuer status – three referee reports required. These may include one from a non-property background, one from your immediate supervisor and one from elsewhere within the property industry. At least one of the three nominated referees is to be a member of the API.
